ScanStar is a joint Nordic packaging competition held annually since 1969 by SPA, the Scandinavian Packaging Association. Scanstar 2021 is organized by Swedish Packaging Guild (Svenska Förpackningsgillet).

Companies awarded a ScanStar gets a diploma and the right to use the ScanStar logo in the marketing of the awarded packaging. The names of the winners will be published internationally shortly after the jury decision. Packaging awarded a ScanStar has the right to enter the international WorldStar competition arranged by World Packaging Organization (WPO).

Who can participate?

The competition is open for all packaging solutions designed, constructed or manufactured in one of the Nordic Countries. Packaging solutions made in other countries but sold by a Nordic company or ordered by a Nordic customer may also participate. Packaging entries must be marketed before the entry date and must not have been in any previous ScanStar competitions.

Entries can be made by designers, constructors, manufacturers or buyers of packaging with an approval from the other stakeholders. Each company has the right to enter an unlimited number of packages that comply with the rules of the competition.
